Just the Tip

- (Refer to topic)

Notes

Starts at 21m52s.

† Nina was drinking water. Paden Emily was drinking Kinsey bourbon. jthan Caity was drinking a pickleback pink gin and a grapefruit LaCroix.

- What's it like living with the Hosts?
 - Alex says that Paden likes to play with other peoples' new phones.
 - And gets mad about setting up wi-fi in stores.
 - Audrey says it was weird her mom and Paden met in a video game.
 - And gets frustrated because Paden pretends he knows more about speedrunning than her.
 - And doesn't like TikTok because China (which, to be fair, valid).
 - Emily says that Paden likes sticking things on the car because he can't drill holes in it. (For ham (amateur radio).)
 - Nina likes that there's always a USB charging cable available in any given room.
 - And doesn't need to set up her own electronics.
 - And my cable management. :)
 - But doesn't like how much tech jargon we use and doesn't understand why so much of it is named after food. (To be fair, neither do I.)
 - And she likes that my Google-Fu and documentation parsing is on-point.
 - But it drives her nuts that I get things with "bells and whistles".
 - But, BUT, hear me out, that rake I can use for grass clippings, leaves, mulch, whatever. It's like three rakes in one!
 - And the weed puller gets the roots too! And her back may be fine but mine's fucked, so the less bending over I need to do the better.
 - We all use what they consider unreasonably strong passwords.

15 Plenty of Clams

In this segment, jthan Caity shares with you a little slice of life. The title is a reference to this video. (2m16s in)

Starts at 1h17m12s.

(You can tell Nina and Emily have listened to the podcast before because they got the lead-up bait-and-switch joke Nina did for the Clams intro.)

According to Caity, Jthan is a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. He was mad over a broken mug.

Errata

- I think I've mentioned my period of (quasi)Nazirite vow before on-air.
 - With some modifications...
 - I did a vow of 5 years (and kept the dreadlocks because they're just easier than always getting my hair trimmed), so not a complete temporary vow (as there is no Temple anymore).
 - I extended corpse to any dead thing (incl. animals).
 - The terms of this, as Nina mentioned, were tricky. I imposed a 6-foot limit, and included animals. This means I could go to funerals but could not touch the body (or come within 6 feet of it).
 - There was also a limit of time on this since I included animals; meat that had been slaughtered more than 24 hours ago was okay. Roadkill still wasn't. Yes, I'd sometimes need to swerve a bit (not drastically) or change lanes if I noticed roadkill. There wasn't any significant danger in it, from what I recall.
 - The texts indicate an inclination, contextually, towards red grapes/wines/etc. specifically, but I avoided red and white both.
 - Apparently it's a tech guy thing to get nosebleeds.
 - Paden and I can take credit for fast internet because you need a gigabit LAN and 802.11ac to take advantage of 1Gbps ISP. ;)
 - TIL kids are stealing soap dispensers from their school's bathroom.
 - Nina didn't have to futz with a screensaver because I followed best practices and made a new account for her and configured it closer to her usage patterns. :P
 - Step up your game, Paden and Jthan.
